

Labor Day National '03

FINAL RESULTS

USJGT LABOR DAY NATIONAL OPEN

Willow Creek Golf Club

Knoxville, Tennessee

August 30-31, 2003

Wes Roach (Knoxville, Tenn.) edged defending champion Philip Lee (Maryville, Tenn.) by one shot to claim his first USJGT career win at the USJGT Labor Day National Open at Willow Creek Golf Club in Knoxville. Roach, a high school freshman, trailed Lee by one shot heading to number 16 on Sunday. However, a costly double bogey by Lee and a par by Roach gave Roach a one shot lead which he held over the final two holes. Both players claim Willow Creek as their home course as Roach's father, Bill, is the head pro at the facility.

Another high school freshman, Aaron George, fired an even-par 72 on Sunday to take third while senior Ethan Dwyer rebounded from an opening 80 with a one-under 71 on Sunday to claim fourth.

In the Boys Junior High division, Dane Voss (Jonesborough, Tenn.) entered Sunday with a three shot lead over Preston McClellan (Memphis, Tenn.) and doubled that margin to claim a six-shot victory. McClellan was one-under through the first 16 holes on Saturday, but ended bogey-triple bogey in the first round. He played the final 20 holes of the tournament in nine-over par. Voss stayed steady throughout the 36 holes and never led by less than two shots on Sunday.

The Girls Junior High Division and Boys Rising Stars division were shortened to 27 holes due to inclement weather. Mary Michael Maggio (Conway, Ark.) fired an opening round 77 and followed that with a 39 on Sunday to win. Smylie Kaufman (Vestavia Hills, Ala.) won easily by seven shots over McKeehanon Rue (Athens, Tenn.)

Dylan Cohee (Centerville, Ohio) fell one stroke shy of equalling the tour record for that division, but still won handily with a 73. Kendall Martindale (Jefferson City, Tenn.) opened with a 37 en route to a seven-shot win over A.J. Selig (Appleton, Wisc.).
