MARSH WINS AT THROUGH THE GREEN BY FIVE SHOTS

Ninth-grader Caleb Marsh (Strawberry Plains, Tenn.) fired an opening round 72 and finished with a 76 on Sunday to claim a five shot victory in the Through The Green Open this weekend at Joelton, Tennessee. Kaleb Nichols (Cordova, Tenn.) and Michael Woods (Knoxville, Tenn.) finished tied for second while Jack Belote (Bartlett, Tenn.) came in fourth, seven shots out of the lead. The win is Marsh's first of the season.

Alex Rowland (Houston, Miss.) continued his domination of the Boys Junior High Division with a 12 shot victory over Drew Frisby (Memphis, Tenn.). Brandon Rodgers (Knoxville, Tenn.), holding a one shot lead after Saturday's round, fired a final round 72 en route to a win in the Boys Rising Stars division.

Dylan Cohee (Centerville, Ohio), trailing by five shots after round one, birdied the final hole on Sunday to claim a one shot win over first round leader Kevin Wade (Cordova, Tenn.) Kendall Martindale (Jefferson City, Tenn.) continued her mastery of the Girls Rising Stars division with a 30 shot win.
