PATTON WINS NATIONAL MEMPHIS CLASSIC WITH SUNDAY 69

Kris Patton (Collierville, Tenn.) fired a three-under 69 on Sunday to overtake first round leader Todd Obergonner (Cape Girardeau, Mo.) and The National Memphis Classic at Windyke Country Club in Memphis. The Boys High School Division was shortened to 27 holes because of rain on Saturday. Patton was six-over after the first six holes on Saturday but closed with three straight birdies meaning he was six-under in his final 21 holes of the event. Obergonner was the first round leader with a 34 on Saturday, but stumbled with a double bogey on 18 on Sunday.

2003 USJGT Player of the Year Kellye Belcher (Bartlett, Tenn.) fired a 75 to defeat Melissa Rosloniec (Cordova, Tenn.) by three shots in the rain-shortened Girls High School Division. Belcher had no birdies in the round, but stayed steady throughout the afternoon. Casey Patterson (West Helena, Ark.) recorded his first career USJGT win in the Boys Junior High Division with a 75 edging Garrett Wilhite (Mountain Home, Ark.) by two shots.

Seth Sullivant (Mountain Home, Ark.) captured his first USJGT victory beating Kory Webb (Knoxville, Tenn.) on the first hole of sudden death in the Boys Rising Stars Division.. Both players shot 78 on Sunday, but Sullivant recorded a par on the first hole to capture the win. Kendall Martindale (Jefferson City, Tenn.) edged Esther Huffman (Olive Branch, Miss.) by one shot in the Girls Rising Stars Division while Kevin Wade (Cordova, Tenn.) won for the second consecutive tournament in the Boys Future Stars with a four-shot victory over G Rollins (Murfreesboro, Tenn.)
