KNUCKEY FIRES ONE UNDER TO WIN TIGHT TOURNAMENT AT YANKEE TRACE

Tied with nine holes to play, Chip Knuckey (Springfield, Ohio) fired a three-under 33 on the backside on Sunday to beat Matthew Stauch (Dublin, Ohio) by three shots and claim the Dayton Junior Open at The Club at Yankee Trace. Knuckey, a Wright State University signee, captured his first career USJGT win.

Chloe Nelson (Las Vegas, Nev.) had an eight shot lead after the first round, then held off hard-charging Ashley Baker (Dublin, Ohio) to win the Girls High School title by five shots. Nelson opened with a 74 and Baker finished with a 76 on Sunday including 14 straight pars to end her round.

James Boxley (Dayton, Ohio) coasted to a nine-shot win in the Boys Junior High division with a 75 each day while Allie Kiser (Dayton, Ohio) captured the Girls Junior High title.

McKeehanon Rue (Athens, Tenn.) came from behind to defeat Ricky Denny (Germantown, Ohio) in the Boys Rising Stars division. Rue closed with a 37 on his final nine holes.

Kendall Martindale (Jefferson City, Tenn.) won for the eight consecutive time this season in the Girls Rising Stars division while Dylan Cohee (Centerville, Ohio) won the Boys Future Stars title on his home course.
